

The Textile Museum Collections Relocation

Contact:
Rachel Shabica
Registrar
The Textile Museum
202.994.5200
rshabica@textilemuseum.org

During the course of 16 weeks, ELY relocated more than 40,000 objects belonging to the Textile Museum in Washington, DC, to their new storage facility in Ashburn, VA. Our team's work included expert art handling and packing. Additionally, between locations, ELY performed pest management procedures at our facility by placing all textiles into two walk-in freezers as a preparation for the move into the new site.

Photographs by William Atkins, Senior University Photographer, The George Washington University.